

John 2:23-24 (NLT)

23 Because of the miraculous signs Jesus did in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration,
many began to trust in Him.

24 But Jesus didn't trust them, because He knew all about people.

25 No one needed to tell Him about human nature, for He knew what was in
each person's heart.

John 3:1-4 (NLT)

There was a man named Nicodemus, a Jewish religious leader who was a Pharisee.

2 After dark one evening, he came to speak with Jesus. "Rabbi," he said, "we all know that God has sent You to teach us. Your miraculous signs are evidence that God is with You."

3 Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, unless you are born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of God."

4 “What do you mean?”
exclaimed Nicodemus.
“How can an old man go back into his mother’s womb and be born again?”

John 3:14b-18 (NLT)

...the Son of Man must be lifted up,

15 so that everyone who believes in Him will have eternal life.

16 "For this is how God loved the world: He gave His one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life.

17 God sent His Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through Him.

18 "There is no judgment against anyone who believes in Him. But anyone who does not believe in Him has already been judged for not believing in God's one and only Son.

John 4:1-42 (NLT)

4 Jesus knew the Pharisees had heard that
He was baptizing and making more disciples than John

2 (though Jesus himself didn't baptize them—His disciples did).³ So He left Judea and returned to Galilee.

4 He had to go through Samaria on the way.

ISRAEL AT THE TIME OF JESUS

1ST CENTURY AD

5 Eventually He came to the Samaritan village of Sychar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

⁶ Jacob's well was there; and Jesus, tired from the long walk, sat wearily beside the well about noontime.

7 Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Please give Me a drink."

8 He was alone at the time because His disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

9 The woman was surprised, for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans. She said to Jesus, "You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are You asking me for a drink?"

10 Jesus replied, "If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask Me, and I would give you living water."

11 “But Sir, you don’t have a rope or a bucket,” she said, “and this well is very deep. Where would you get this living water?”

12 And besides, do you think you're greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us this well? How can you offer better water than he and his sons and his animals enjoyed?"

13 Jesus replied, “Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again.

14 But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life.”

15 “Please, Sir,” the woman said, “give me this water! Then I’ll never be thirsty again, and I won’t have to come here to get water.”

16 “Go and get your husband,” Jesus told her.

17 “I don’t have a husband,” the woman replied.

Jesus said, “You’re right! You don’t have a husband—

18 for you have had five husbands, and you aren't even married to the man you're living with now. You certainly spoke the truth!"

19 “Sir,” the woman said,
“you must be a prophet.

20 So tell me, why is it that you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place of worship, while we Samaritans claim it is here at Mount Gerizim, where our ancestors worshiped?"

21 Jesus replied, "Believe me, dear woman, the time is coming when it will no longer matter whether you worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem.

22 You Samaritans know very little about the one you worship, while we Jews know all about Him, for salvation comes through the Jews.

23 But the time is coming—indeed it's here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship Him that way.

24 For God is Spirit, so those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth."

25 The woman said, "I know the Messiah is coming—the one who is called Christ. When He comes, He will explain everything to us."

26 Then Jesus told her, "I am the Messiah!"
