Jesus*

John 2:1-11 (NLT)

2 The next day there was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there,

2 and Jesus and His disciples were also invited to the celebration.

<sup>3</sup> The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus' mother told Him, "They have no more wine."

4 “Dear woman, that’s not our problem,” Jesus replied. “My time has not yet come.”

<sup>6</sup> Standing nearby were six stone water jars, used for Jewish ceremonial washing. Each could hold twenty to thirty gallons.

7 Jesus told the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” When the jars had been filled,

<sup>8</sup> He said, “Now dip some out, and take it to the master of ceremonies.” So the servants followed His instructions.

<sup>9</sup> When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, not knowing where it had come from (though, of course, the servants knew), he called the bridegroom over.

10 “A host always serves the best wine first,” he said. “Then, when everyone has had a lot to drink, he brings out the less expensive wine. But you have kept the best until now!”

11 This miraculous sign at Cana in Galilee was the first time Jesus revealed His glory. And His disciples believed in Him.

A collection of ancient clay pots and vases, likely from the Aegean or Minoan civilizations, displayed in a museum. The vessels are made of light-colored, textured clay and feature various shapes, including wide-mouthed jars and narrow-necked vases. Many have small, looped handles. The background is dark, and the lighting highlights the textures of the pottery.
